Alessandro Palace & Bar

Via Vicenza 42

00185 Rome, Italy

Established in 1990, the Alessandro Palace Hostel has become one of the most popular hostels in Rome for backpackers & independent travellers worldwide.

The Alessandro Palace Hostel provides energy-saving air-conditioning & heating units as well as bathrooms in every room. Located in a safe central area, Alessandro Palace Hostel is a short walk (5 minutes) from Termini, Rome's central transportation hub for buses, metro, taxi stops, and trains to get you where you want to go.

The Alessandro Palace Hostel is one of the few hostels in Rome to have its own onsite pub with satellite TV & the cheapest drink specials in town. Furthermore, Alessandro Palace Hostel is a proud selected member of Europe's Famous Hostels.

Alessandro Palace Bar boasts a traditional Roman style architecture & atmosphere.

Michelangelo's masterpiece "The Creation" painted on the ceiling welcomes you along with our friendly bar staff. It is the perfect place to sit back, relax and chat with fellow travellers over a beer!

A wide screen TV and surround sound speaker system keeps you entertained with all the sports & music until late. The bar offers wi-fi connection, special events: parties, games, the cheapest drinks in town and happy hour every night.

Bar open from 6pm until 2am (last call 1:30am) every night!
